JOINT ADMISSIONS TESTING PROGRAM

Parents of Applicants Moving to Atlanta:

The attached letter contains the instructions that a licensed psychologist in your community will need in order to complete the requirements of the Joint Admissions Testing Program in Atlanta.

After circling the name of the JATP psychologist you have chosen from the JATP Brochure to coordinate your child's testing, give the attached letter to your local psychologist. Don't forget to include the sheet with the Atlanta psychologist's name circled so that your local psychologist knows to whom to send the results.

Be sure to send the JATP registration card and out-of-town test fee ($50.00) to the JATP psychologist you have selected in Atlanta so that the test scores can be sent to the schools to which your child is applying.

Sincerely yours,

JATP Psychologists

JOINT ADMISSIONS TESTING PROGRAM

Dear Psychologist:

In order to fulfill the requirements of the Joint Admissions Testing Program (JATP) in Atlanta, please adhere to the following guidelines:

For children younger than 6 years

- Administer the WPPSI-III core subtests
- Also administer Comprehension subtest.
- We prefer receiving scoring information generated by the computer program associated with the WPPSI-III. This includes Composite Score Summary, Composite Score Profile, and the
- Subtest Scores Summaries. If computer assisted scoring is unavailable to you, please complete the scoring and graph on the first page of the Record Form as legibly as possible.
- On your letterhead, write a brief statement including the name of the child, test(s) administered, and the date of the testing along with your signature and license number.
- Please also indicate whether the following were or were not appropriate for the child's age: activity level; self-confidence; social interaction; attention span; and frustration tolerance. Additional behavioral observations are welcomed by the schools.
- Mail or fax the above information to the Atlanta psychologist chosen by the parent.

For children 6 years and older

- Administer all WISC-IV core subtests
- We prefer receiving scoring information generated by the computer program associated with the WISC-IV. This includes Composite Score Summary, Composite Score Profile, and the Subtest Scores Summaries. If computer assisted scoring is unavailable to you, please complete the scoring and graph on the first page of the Record Form as legibly as possible.
- On your letterhead, write a brief statement including the name of the child, the test administered, and the date of the testing along with your signature and license number. Please also indicate whether the following were or were not appropriate for the child's age: activity level; self-confidence; social interaction; attention span; and frustration tolerance. Additional behavioral observations are welcomed by the schools.
- Mail or fax a copy of the front page of the WISC-IV Record Form and the statement on your letterhead to the Atlanta psychologist chosen by the parent.

The above information will fulfill the requirements of the Joint Admissions Testing Program in Atlanta. The parents should have already sent the JATP registration card and fee to the Atlanta psychologist who, upon receipt of your information, will ensure that the test results are sent to the schools the parents have chosen.

Sincerely yours,

JATP Psychologists
